PRESIDENT: Now, do you yield to a question?

SENATOR WHITNEY: Why couldn't you just amend Senator Stahmer's bill and put it up here on the floor with the equivalent of this resolution?

PRESIDENT: Senator Syas. Well, wait a minute....

SENATOR CARPENTER: To the extent that the Body wants to which is apparently to hold a public hearing on it. I would be the last one to object to a public hearing. I think there's more support for this resolution in some form than we realize there are. So I would hope, Senator Whitney, to leave the thing go to Senator Syas' committee and let nature take its course.

PRESIDENT: All right, are you all through discussing? Senator Syas.

SENATOR SYAS: Let's set it for 12:45 Thursday. I have one Wednesday and one Thursday. This one has been called to my attention. It might draw a crowd.

PRESIDENT: All right, now....

SENATOR SYAS: Thursday I don't think I need to suspend the rules. Is that right?

PRESIDENT: Stand by just a minute. Let's figure it out. Are we okay on that one? Does he have to.....all right. It's not necessary then.

SENATOR SYAS: All right, I'll set it for 12:45 Thursday.

PRESIDENT: Okay, Senator Syas is now.....

SENATOR SYAS: I'll have one Wednesday and one Thursday.

PRESIDENT: Senator Syas has set Resolution 133 for public hearing at 12:45 Thursday next week. Do we have other resolutions on the desk?

CLERK: Mr. President, unanimous consent to print amendments to LB1057 in the Journal. Signed, Senator Nore.

PRESIDENT: Are there objections to printing amendments in the Journal? Hearing none, so ordered then. The amendments shall be printed in the Journal. Okay. Would Speaker Proud come forward please?

CLERK: He's absent, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Whoops...all right. Senator Whitney, would you come forward please when you get a chance there?

CLERK: Mr. President, I move....not I move....there will be an executive committee meeting of the Committee on Agriculture at 8:00 o'clock Friday morning. Signed, Senator Schmit.

PRESIDENT: Senator Richard Lewis, for what purpose did you want to be recognized? We'll find you in a minute. Go ahead.

SENATOR R. LEWIS: Are we on here? Mr. President, I just thought I'd like to announce that any of those wanting a
